Dear [REDACTED]

You have pleased us immensely by accepting our invitation to share the Forum program with Mr. Larson on Monday evening, June 23, at eight o'clock.

An outline of procedure and a copy of the invitation are enclosed. Happily, we need not burden you with our usual admonitions. Permit just one suggestion: It would be advisable to speak much more loudly than would seem necessary. As I am sure you observed last evening, acoustically this old workshop leaves much to be desired{

We hope very much that [REDACTED] will accompany you and that you both will have refreshments immediately after the meeting. We go JUST as quickly as possible to apartment 515, Burlington Hotel, 1120 Vermont Avenue, N. W.

Sincerely yours,

W. J. [unclear]
(Mrs. Charles T. Estes)
